MEMBERSHIP

2. Membership. Membership in the Society shall be divided into two classes, namely, honorary life membership and regular membership. Honorary life members and regular members are hereinafter referred to as “members”.
3. Regular Membership. Any individual may be admitted to regular membership in the Society from time to time by resolution of the directors.
4. Honorary Life Members. Any individual may be admitted to honorary life membership in the Society from time to time by resolution of the directors. All honorary life members shall be exempt from any requirement to pay annual dues or fees.
5. Fees. The board of directors may from time to time fix annual dues or fees payable by the members or any specific category of members. The Secretary shall notify the members of the dues or fees at any time payable by them and, if any are not paid within 30 days of the date of such notice, the members in default shall thereupon automatically cease to be members of the Society, but any such members may on payment of all unpaid dues or fees be reinstated as members by the directors.
6. Resignation from Membership. Any member may resign from membership in the Society upon notice in writing thereof received by the Secretary of the Society.
7. Amendment. Sections 3 and 4 of this by-law shall not be amended, repealed or rescinded except by a resolution confirmed by a least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special general meeting of the Society duly called for that purpose.

MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

8. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of the members required by section 217 of the Act shall be held at any place within Newfoundland and Labrador, on such day in each year and at such time as the directors may by resolution determine. At annual meetings there shall be presented a report of the directors of the affairs of the Society for the previous year, a financial statement of the Society and the auditor’s report thereon, should there be one, as required by the Act, and such other information or reports relating to the Society’s affairs as the directors may determine.
9. Special General Meetings. Other meetings of the members (to be known as “special general meetings”) may be convened by order of the President or Vice-President or by the board of directors to be held at any date and time and at any place within Newfoundland and Labrador. The board of directors shall call a special general meeting of members on written requisition of not less than 25 regular members in good standing.
10. Notice. Notice stating the day, hour and place of meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted shall be given, by electronic means (email, social, and/or newsletter) or in writing, to each member and to the auditors of the Society at least 21 days before the date of every meeting. Notice of any meeting where special business will be transacted shall contain sufficient information to permit the member to form a reasoned judgment on the decision to be taken.

11. Omission of Notice. The non-receipt of any notice by any member or members or by the auditor of the Society shall not invalidate any resolution passed or any proceedings taken at any meeting of members.
12. Voting. Each regular member in good standing resident of Newfoundland and Labrador and each honorary life member shall be entitled to one vote at any meeting of members. Unless the Act or these by-laws otherwise provide, every question submitted to any meeting of members shall be decided in the first instance by a majority of votes given on a show of hands and in case of any equality of votes, both on a show of hands and at a poll, the chairman shall not be entitled to vote to break a tie. At any meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the motion.
13. Chairperson. In the absence of the President and Vice-President, the members present shall choose another director as chairman and, if no director is present or, if all the directors present decline to act as chairman, the members present shall choose one of the members present to be chairman.
14. Polls. If at any meeting a poll is taken on the election of a chairman or on the question of adjournment, it shall be taken forthwith without adjournment. If a poll is demanded on any other question or as to the election of directors, it shall be taken in such manner and either at once or after adjournment as the chairman directs. The result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
15. Adjournments. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting, adjourn the same from time to time to a fixed time and place within Newfoundland and Labrador and no notice of the time and place for the holdings of the adjourned meeting need be given to the members. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at any adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.
16. Quorum. The presence of 2 members shall be a quorum of any meeting of members for the choice of a chairman and the adjournment of the meeting; for all other purposes the presence of 10 of the regular members in good standing shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless the requisite quorum shall be present at the commencement of such business.

DIRECTORS

17. Number and Powers. The affairs of the Society shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of not fewer than 5 directors and not more than 15 directors. The directors may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Society and are not by the by-laws of the Society or by statute expressly directed or required to be done by the Society at a meeting of members.

18. Qualifications of Directors. Every director shall be 19 or more years of age and, subject to the provisions of section 172 of the Act, shall, at the time of their election or within 10 days thereafter and throughout the term of their office, be a member of the Society.

Retiring directors shall be eligible for re-election to the board of directors if otherwise qualified and retiring directors shall continue in office until their successors shall have been duly elected or appointed.

From time to time in the event of any vacancy however caused occurring in the board of directors (except through an increase in the number of directors), such vacancy may, as long as there is a quorum of directors then in office, be filled by the directors of the Society if they shall see fit to do so; otherwise such vacancy shall be filled at the next annual meeting of members or at a special general meeting of members held prior to such annual meeting and any director appointed or elected to fill any such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of the director who ceased to be a director and who caused such vacancy.

20. Vacation of Office. The office of a director of the Society shall become vacated:

  - (e) if the director ceases to be a member.
21. Removal of Directors. The members of the Society may, by resolution passed by a least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special general meeting of members in respect of which notice specifying the intention to pass such a resolution has been given to all members, remove any director before the expiration of the director's term of office and may, by a majority of the votes cast at such meeting, elect any member for the remainder of the term.

22. Remuneration of Directors. The directors shall serve without remuneration and no director shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from the position as such, provided that a director may be paid reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of a director.

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

23. Place of Meetings. Meetings of the board of directors may be held either at the registered office of the Society or at any other place within Newfoundland and Labrador.
24. Notice. A meeting of directors may be convened at any time by the President or Vice-President or any 2 directors. The Secretary, by direction of the President or Vice-President or any 2 directors, shall convene a meeting of directors. The directors may from time to time by resolution determine to hold regular meetings of the directors and shall by such resolution fix the dates or times of such regular meetings; so long as any such resolution is in effect the Secretary of the Society shall convene such regular meetings by notice given in the manner hereinafter referred to.

Notice of any meeting of directors stating the day, hour and place of meeting shall be given to each director at least 2 business days before the meeting is to take place, provided always that meetings of the board of directors may be held at any time without formal notice if all the directors are present or those absent have waived notice or have signified their consent in writing to the meeting being held in their absence. Notice of any meeting or any irregularity in any meeting or in the notice thereof may be waived by any director and such waiver may be validly given either before or after the meeting to which such waiver relates.

For the first meeting of the board of directors to be held immediately following the election of directors at an annual or special general meeting of the members or for a meeting of the board of directors at which a director is appointed to fill a vacancy in the board, no notice of such meeting shall be necessary to the newly elected or appointed director or directors in order for the meeting to be duly constituted, provided that a quorum of the directors is present.

25. Quorum and Voting. A majority of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Questions arising at any meeting of director shall be decided by a majority of votes. The chairman of the meeting shall not have a tie-breaking vote. In the event of an equal number of votes for and against a motion such motion shall be deemed not to have been passed.
26. Participation by Way of Technical Means. A director may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors by way of technical means which enables them to communicate well with the other directors. In such a case, the director shall be deemed to have attended the meeting. A meeting of directors may be held via teleconference, web conference, or video conference.

27. Resolution in Writing. A resolution in writing, signed by all of the directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of directors, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors. A resolution distributed via email or similar technical means, to which all directors entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of directors have responded approving the resolution, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of directors.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

28. Any member or director who has an interest in, or who has an interest in a commercial enterprise which has an interest in, a contract or proposed contract with the Society shall disclose the nature and extent of such interest at the meeting of the Society or the board at which time the same is first considered.
29. No members shall vote on any question before the Society and no director shall vote on any question before the board of directors upon the determination of which the director, any immediate relative or any commercial enterprise in which any of them has an interest, may derive any pecuniary or other material advantage.

INDEMNITIES TO DIRECTORS AND OTHERS

30. Every director or officer of the Society or other person past or present who has undertaken or is about to undertake any liability on behalf of the Society and their heirs, executors and administrators, and estate and effects, respectively, shall, from time to time and at all times, be indemnified and saved harmless, out of the funds of the Society, from and against:
- (a) all costs, charges and expenses whatsoever which such director, officer or other person sustains or incurs in or about any action, suit or proceeding which is brought, commenced or prosecuted for or in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever made, done or permitted in or about the execution of the duties of office or in respect of any such liability; and
  - (b) all other costs, charges and expenses sustained or incurred in or about or in relation to the affairs thereof, except such costs, charges or expenses as are occasioned by willful neglect or default; or which are illegal.

FOR THE PROTECTION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

No director or officer for the time being of the Society shall be liable for the acts, receipts, neglects or defaults of any other director or officer or employee or for joining in any receipt or act for conformity or for any loss, damage or expense suffered or incurred by the Society through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by the Society or for or on behalf of the Society or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of or belonging to the Society shall be placed out or invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person, firm or corporation, including any person, firm or corporation with whom or which any moneys, securities or effects shall be lodged or deposited, or any loss, conversion, misapplication or misappropriation of or any damage resulting from any dealings with any moneys, securities or other assets belonging to the Society or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which may happen in the execution of the duties of the respective office or trust or in relation thereto unless the same shall happen by or through wrongful and willful act or through wrongful and willful neglect or default.

The directors for the time being of the Society shall not be under any duty or responsibility in respect of any contract, act or transaction whether or not made, done or entered into in the name or on behalf of the Society, except such as shall have been submitted to and authorized or approved by the board of directors. If any director or officer of the Society shall be employed by or shall perform services for the Society otherwise than as director or officer or shall be a member of a firm or a shareholder, director or officer of a company which is employed by or performs services for the Society, the fact of being a director or officer of the Society shall not disentitle such director or officer or such firm or company, as the case may be, from receiving proper remuneration for such services.
